

Mario Aguilar

Objective

Hard-working and passionate college student working towards being accepted into code RGV bootcamp.

Education

SOUTH TEXAS COLLEGE, TX

ASSOCIATE OF APPLIED SCIENCE IN INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY SPECIALIZATION: NETWORKING

Related coursework:

Computer Operating Systems

Fundamentals of Networking Technologies

Networking with TCP/IP

Network Troubleshooting and Support

Interpersonal Communication

College Algebra

Personal Computer Hardware

Beginning Web Page Programming

Server Support / Installation

Advanced Routing and Switching

Information Technology Security

Argumentative English literature

Computer Experience

- Built computers by using tutorials on the internet and piecing together all parts
- Installed operating systems including Windows and Linux Operating systems
- Set up my own network using Routers and switches multiple times
- Often called by friends and family to solve computer hardware and software issues
- Consult others on which computers are best for the applications being used
- Router to router communication
- OSPF - Routing Protocol
- Basic Website Design – HTML Coding
- Strong knowledge of Windows 7/10 and Linux
- Computer peripherals such as scanners, printers, monitors and other technologies
- Information Security, files backups and firewalls
- Data backups and maintenance
- Half a year of wiring experience and assembling data racks also referred to as data drops